PUBLIC COMMENTS:

- Stephan Brazanskas: Advised the Board that the celebrations being held at Trails End every weekend during this past summer has been extremely loud and it prohibits him from sitting out on his back deck during the summer nights. He further advised that he did contact Trails End three or four times to ask if they would turn down the music or face the speakers in a different direction. Trails End said they would talk to the DJ. He asked the Board what course of action he would be able to take in the future. Solicitor Ohliger advised that he makes a recording while it is happening and make sure there is a time stamp on the recording and forward it to the code enforcement officer to review to see if there is a potential violation.
